

SEMI-WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL.

VOL. XXI.

STANFORD, KY., TUESDAY, MAY 2, 1893.

NO. 18

DANVILLE.

—Dr. Fayette Dunlap was called to Lebanon on professional business Saturday.

—Annie, the 28-year-old daughter of Thomas Doran, died Friday of consumption and was buried Saturday.

—Mary Embry was sent to the workhouse Monday for 17 days for assaulting Bob Jones. Mary is a Stanford importation and a sure enough tough one.

—The newly elected officers of Ryan Commandery No. 17, Knights Templar, are Alex Tribble, Commander; Frank Gilcher, Generalissimo; W. B. Millburn, Captain General; J. M. Worrall, Prelate; T. F. Durham, Senior Warden; M. F. Hulet, Junior Warden; J. H. Thomas, Treasurer; H. G. Sandifer, Recorder; W. J. Davis, Standard-bearer; J. W. Flowers, Sword-bearer; C. R. McDowell, Warder; Fred Harris Sentinel.

—Circuit court since Thursday at noon: John Gresham's adm'r vs. L. & N. R. Co., peremptory instructions for defendant. In this case John Gresham, a small boy, was killed by the road at Junction City. For burning his house through sparks from a locomotive R. H. C. Mitchell obtained $3,175 from the L. & N. road. The case will go to the court of appeals. J. M. Meyer, ex. vs. Chas. H. McDowell's adm'r, to break said McDowell's will, continued; Jas. H. Brand vs. Danville and Perryville Turnpike Co., peremptory instruction in favor of def't. Plaintiff will go to the court of appeals. Kate Lee, conspiracy to commit arson, trial in progress Monday at noon.

LONDON, LAUREL COUNTY.

—The pupils of Laurel Seminary went to Altamont Monday on a picnicking excursion.

—Col. R. C. Ford passed through here Friday on his way to Manchester. He had been in New York.

—Deputy Collector Charles M. Randall is in Pulaski county attending to some government affairs.

—The case against James Barnard, who was accused of beating up and robbing Pat Casey, has been reversed by the court of appeals. Barnard was convicted at the last circuit court and given one year in the penitentiary.

—Henry Masterson, who was indicted several years ago for attempting to rob a train at East Bernstadt, was captured and brought here Friday by Col. Bill Stringer, who has been gone from here some time his own self.

—The miners on the L. & N. south of and including Altamont had some misunderstanding with the operators as to the rate for the next twelve months last week, but the question was settled to the satisfaction of the operators and us outsiders.

—Mr. A. R. Dyche, editor of the Echo, had the misfortune to break his steam press Thursday, when about two-thirds of his edition had been run off. He will have to ship almost the whole of his cylinder press to Cincinnati for repairs. The freight alone on it will cost him over $70 and it will be about four weeks before the paper can come out, as usual. This is a misfortune both to the public and the editor, which the writer regrets. Mr. Dyche is a good man any way, if it wasn't for his unreasonable ideas about politics.

Here are the names of spouses of the Statesmen that Mr. Cleveland has found and given office:

Hon. Hoke Smith, Georgia.
Hon. Dink Batts, Georgia.
Hon. Posey Ball, of Kentucky.
Hon. Joshua Jump, Terre Haute, Ind.
Hon. Nash Buncombe, Florida.
Hon. Plunk Rickey, Tennessee.
Hon. Tad Beazley, Arkansas.
Hon. Pod Diemuke, Georgia.
Hon. Budd Dodds, North Carolina.
Hon. Potsdam Sams, Louisiana.
Hon. Rhine Opitz, Ohio.
Hon. Absalom Milkweed, East Tennessee.
Hon. Chark Button, Mississippi.

Are You Going?—If so get posted ahead and go the best way. The World's Fair opens May 1, and from the South and Southern Ohio, the route via C. H. & D. offers the most advantages both in comfort and points of interest. The C. H. & D. in connection with the Monon is the only line running Pullman vestibuled trains with dining-cars between Cincinnati and Chicago. The unequalled service of this route has earned for it the title of the "World's Fair Route." Purchase tickets via the C. H. & D. For rates, and full information call on or address any C. H. & D. agent or E. O. McCormick, G. P. & T. Agt., "World's Fair Route," 200 W. 4th Street, Cincinnati, O. Send 20 cents in stamps to the latter address and receive a panoramic view, five feet long, of Chicago and the World's Fair, showing relative heights of buildings, &c.

A Leader.
Since its first introduction, Electric Bitters has gained rapidly in popular favor until now it is clearly in the lead among pure medical tonics and alteratives—containing nothing which permits its use as a beverage or intoxicant; it is recognized as the best and purest medicine for all ailments of the stomach, liver and kidneys. It will cure Sick Headache, Indigestion, Constipation and drive Malaria from the system. Satisfaction guaranteed with each bottle or the money will be refunded. Price only 25 cents per bottle. Sold by A. R. Penny, Druggist.

—The World's Fair Buildings cover a ground space of 240 acres.

LANCASTER, GARRARD COUNTY.

—Alfred Burnside, an old and highly respected colored man, died Saturday morning and was buried Sunday.

—Catholic services were held at the court-house Sunday morning. A large number of strangers attended.

—The fishing party that went to the Cumberland river has returned and reports the sport as exceedingly fine.

—The meetings to commence at the Presbyterian church Wednesday will be held twice daily, viz: at 3 o'clock and 7:45 p. m.

—The application of J. A. Royston for druggist's license has been withdrawn, as his "pill-roller" failed to produce the necessary certificate.

—About all one hears discussed on our streets now is the saloon question. The coming fight promises to be one of the hottest ever held in Garrard.

—Casey Owsley, of Centre College, was over Saturday and Sunday to see his mother. Mr. C. C. Stormes continues to improve and will soon be out.

—A new crossing is being laid between the Miller Hotel and McRoberts' store. We understand that when the timber, etc., being used on the new buildings is removed, the public square will be covered with new rock. It certainly needs it.

—The members of the band feel highly complimented by the presence of six handsome couples from our neighboring town of Stanford on the evening of their concert. Col. Walton, editor of the INTERIOR JOURNAL, was among the number and received quite an ovation at the conclusion of the performance. From the attention shown him he must have felt somewhat like Artemus Ward when he said no family should be without him.

—The gospel temperance meeting at the Christian church Sunday evening was attended by an immense concourse of people. The church was filled to its utmost capacity and the interest in the meeting was manifested by the close attention given to the speakers. The pastors of the Methodist, Presbyterian and Christian churches were the speakers. The W. C. T. U. were out in full force, and the determination to make a vigorous fight against the movement to reopen saloons was clearly manifested by the speakers and audience.

—The concert at the court-house Friday evening by the Lancaster cornet band was well attended by an appreciative audience, that manifested its approval by unstinted applause. All the parts were well rendered, each member sharing in the honors of the evening. The clarinet playing of Mr. Gene Collins was a pleasant and unique feature of the performance, while the cornet was charming in the hands of Mr. C. C. Cook. Dr. W. B. Penny, of Stanford, rendered valuable assistance on the baritone, and Mr. Ed Buchanan won many encomiums for his services as director. Lancaster has just reason to be proud of her band.

—Farmers whose potatoes have not been rotted by the wet, cold weather, because they have none planted, belong to the ancient society of "I told you so."

—The apple crop of northwest Missouri and northeastern Kansas will be an almost total failure. Ice froze in that vicinity Thursday night to a thickness of nearly half an inch and great damage was done to the apple and peach trees which were already in bloom.

—The Elizabethtown News says that peaches, apples and pears passed thro' the season without being the least bit damaged, and of these varieties of fruit on all Muldraugh's Hill there could hardly be found a bitten bud. The growers are very jubilant, as they think the danger period is passed and they are confidently predicting another crop equal if not larger than that of 1888, which was the largest ever grown in this section.

—The folding bed came near getting in its work again the other night, with Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Tribble, of Richmond, as the victims. While they were sleeping in one of those snapping contrivances it closed on them. Mr. Tribble managed to extricate himself, but she had to call for help to get Mr. Tribble out of the jaws of the snapper.

—Isidore Bonheur, brother to the famous artist, Rosa Bonheur, has designed and executed a handsome bronze statue of a French trotter, which will be offered for the finest collection of French trotters shown by one exhibitor at the Columbian.

—The Liberty Bell, now at the World's Fair, was in use from 1753 to 1853, just a hundred years, when it was cracked while being tolled on the occasion of the death of Chief Justice Marshall.

—From 1865 to 1892, a period of 27 years, the public debt was reduced from $2,807,283,937.55, an almost inconceivably large sum, to $931,710,346. This was at a rate of more than $62,000,000 a year.

—Mrs. Brame, aged 102, died at Georgetown, Mass., recently. The church placed 102 roses on her coffin and the public school 102 pinks. Her life had been one of great usefulness.

BARBOURVILLE.

—As Fountain Fox Bobbitt has gone home, I will drop the "old reliable" another letter.

—There is one more week of circuit court here yet, but the docket is crowded so with criminal business that it will be difficult to get any civil business heard at all.

—Mr. T. J. Kellems, of Roost, Bell county, was in town Sunday. Hal Corbett and Charley Metcalf, of Pineville, were down attending court last week. Several visiting attorneys were here last attending the McHargue case.

—Since my last letter in Tuesday's paper of last week two more men have been sentenced to the penitentiary. They are J. M. E. Baker, for the murder of his uncle, Dan Baker, near Flat Lick, this county, almost three years ago, and Sam McHargue, for killing W. H. Sandler, at Corbin in February, '92. Baker was tried in Judge Boyd's court here last year and was sentenced for life, but his attorney, Col. D. K. Rawlings, had the decision reversed in the court of appeals and a new trial granted; this time he was sentenced for only two years. McHargue was given 15 years, but it is thought he will get a new trial. He is quite a young man and had a good character and there is considerable sympathy for him.

FARM AND TRADE ITEMS.

—John Rout sold to Smith, of Fayette, a combined gelding for $200.

—Holdam & McClure bought in Rockcastle a large bunch of butcher stuff at 23 to 3c.

—Wool.—I want to buy 100,000 lbs. or more of wool. Will pay highest market price. A. T. Nunneley.

—The fastest three trotters that get of any one sire are Sunol 2:08½, Palo Alto 2:08½ and Arion 2:10½, all by Electioneer.

—James Morris shipped to the Louisville Packing Co. three car loads of 210 pound hogs purchased at 6c.—Midway Clipper.

—Frank Medlin, of Harrisburg, Ill., has a cow that has just given birth to 15 well developed calves. Thirteen of them are still alive.

—At Charles Bailey's sale of saddlers in New York, 30 head brought $21,455—an average of $701.50. They were all Kentucky horses.

—The Advocate says that W. L. Caldwell & Co., will exhibit their magnificent two-year-old jack at the World's Fair, for which they have refused $1,500.

—The Record-Homestead says that W. O. Owsley has refused $350 for a filly colt recently dropped. It is by Red Squirrel and out of a Hurst's Vermont mare.

—Wool WANTED.—Bring me your wool and get the highest market price. I want it and will buy it if you will give me an opportunity. Wm. Moreland, Stanford, Ky.

—The Woodford Sun notes sales of several hundred lambs at 6c for June, 5½c for July and 5c for August. J. A. Cohen shipped a car load of hogs to Cincinnati, which cost him 6c.

—Linger, Elmer Bailey's entry in the Kentucky Derby, won the distillers' stake at Lexington Saturday in 1:58½. The talent caught it severely in the neck, as he sold very low in the pools.

—A well-posted Madison county stock dealer tells the Register that hogs will be worth 10 cents by feeding time next fall and that cattle will bring more than any previous year for a long while.

—Capt. T. A. Elkin has received from E. Woodall, of Altamont, two richly bred mares to be bred to his "stallion," Directed. Mr. Woodall saw Mr. Elkin's "ad" in this paper and showed his good "horse sense" by breeding two of his best mares to this fine horse.

—Beazley Bros. & Hays have contracted with Nelson Rowland, the great saddle horse man, of Lexington, to handle their splendid saddle stallion, Silver Tip. Mr. Rowland will take him in hand June 1 and will himself exhibit him at our fair, the Danville fair and other fairs in this section.

—Mr. J. H. Miller returned Saturday from a four-months' stay in Irwin and Ware county, Ga., whence he went with mules. He sold a car-load for Hon. J. S. Owsley, Sr., at $92; a car for S. H. Shanks at $100 and a car that he bought at $164, 96 in all. Trade he says was fair all the time he was there.

—Wm. Moreland bought of P. C. Sandridge a car-load of hogs for 1 to July 15 delivery at 6c; of Hiram Johnson 100 stock ewes for August delivery at $3.50; of Emmett McCormack a bunch of 1,000-pound cattle at 3½c. He sold to J. S. Owsley, Sr., a lot of 1,300-pound cattle at 4c and to E. W. Lee, of Boyle, a bunch of 110-pound shots at 6½c.

—Flying Jib, 2:05½, is the fastest pacer descended from Alexander's Abdallah in the direct male line; Roy Wilkes, 2:07½, the fastest from George Wilkes; St. Patrick, 2:14; the fastest from Volunteer; Wilkie Russell, 2:15, the fastest from Woodford Mambrino; Willard M., 2:14, the fastest from Mambrino Patchen; Flowing Tide, 2:14½, and Mary Chimes, 2:14½, the fastest from Electioneer.

CHURCH AFFAIRS.

—The Southern Baptist Convention, which meets in Nashville May 12, represents a membership of 2,000,000 souls.

—Rev. A. V. Sizemore is quite sick and was unable to fill his appointments at the Baptist church and at Mt. Xenia Sunday.

—Rev. Ben Helm left Saturday for Hazel Green to assist Rev. James M. Little in a protracted meeting. He will be absent several weeks.

—On a contract of $2,300 to reform the town of Bowling Green, Sam Jones scored 2,500 converts. This is less than $1 a head, the cheapest on record.—Com. Gaz.

—Mr. A. C. Sine was elected a delegate at the Transylvania Presbytery recently in session at Burnside to the General Assembly which will convene at Macon, Ga., on May 18.

—Sunrise prayer meetings have been inaugurated in Lexington by Dr. Stuckey but they are not very popular. Most people prefer to do their praying at night and their sleeping in the morning.

—A crank preacher at Oakdale, Tenn., was stopped in the middle of a disgusting harangue and given five minutes to shake the dust of the town from his feet. He absquatulated with several minutes to spare.

—The Methodist Episcopal Church (South) Board of Extension has made assessments on the various conferences to the amount of $100,000 for use by the board next year. The Kentucky Conference is assessed $2,880 and the Louisville $4,290.

—A very dastardly deed was perpetrated near Maysville. As Rev. T. B. Cook and wife were returning to town late at night two persons rode up to their buggy and threw two buckets of filth on them and left without being recognized. Mr. Cook is a Methodist preacher and is well-known here.

—Some one with a fever for figures has calculated that if, when Judas betrayed Jesus for 30 pieces of silver, each piece valued at 3 cents, 90 cents in all, that sum had been put at 4 per cent, the year following, it would now amount to $207,338,000,000,000,000,000,000,000,000,000. This amount put in gold would make a solid globe as large as 17,000 such planets as the earth.

—The next session of the Lincoln County Co-Operation Meeting will be held at Crab Orchard Saturday, May 20, with the following programme:

Devotional Exercises—Jos. Severance, Jr.; 10 o'clock.

Welcome Address—J. B. Briney, Jr.; 10:15.

—The New York girl, who married Mr. Hymen, is to be congratulated on finally landing in the matrimonial net the god of marriage himself.

—State Secretary of the Young Men's Christian Association, H. E. Rosevear, failed to arrive in time to hold the service advertised for the Methodist church, but was on hand Sunday afternoon, when a good crowd greeted him at the Baptist church. After an address on the objects and aims of the Association, 28 young men signified their intention to co-operate with the movement and they will meet at the Christian church next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock to take further steps towards organization. Prof. P. W. Johnson will preside. The Christian church was filled Sunday night to hear addresses from J. E. Davis, of Danville, and Mr. Rosevear on the importance of the Association and the grand work it is doing. Mr. Rosevear is a good speaker and scored some excellent points for the organization he holds so dear to his heart. He refuted the idea held by some that the Association was a drawback to the churches and proved that members of it made the most active and earnest members of the church of God. He showed by statistics that of the 300,000 young men in Kentucky less than 25,000 are church members and over 250,000 are not habitual church-goers. It is the purpose of the Y. M. C. A. to change this deplorable state of affairs, and it is fast doing so. Youth is emphatically the time to make lasting impressions for good or evil. Men rarely become religious after 30 years of age and the census shows that about nine-tenths of the criminals who fill our jails are young men under 27 years old. The Association is accomplishing great good everywhere and it is to be hoped that a permanent organization may be effected here, whose influence will be felt thro' time and eternity.

EVERY FRIDAY.

Mrs. Lolla Small Jackson, daughter of Sam Small, the editor and ex evangelist, has created a sensation at Knoxville by suing a gambling firm to recover $10,000 her husband had dropped with it. Under the laws of the State she can do so, if she is able to produce the proper proof. Jackson is a son of the late president of the E. T. V. & G., who left him a large fortune. Most young men do not realize the value of money that comes to them so easily and young Jackson soon developed into a sporting character and was known as a "high roller." The old adage that a fool and his money is soon parted was exemplified in his case and he had soon, in the language of the sports, "dumped" $40,000. During the time he was playing so high he met Miss Small, under peculiar circumstances. He had an engagement with a young lady to go driving, but was so intoxicated when he went for her in his rig that she refused to accompany him. Miss Small, who was present, said she would go if introduced. The introduction was given, Jackson made love to her at once and in a few days they were married. He did not, of course, prove a model husband and the truth of another adage was shown. She has made her bed hard and she must lie hard. We feel the sincerest compassion for a woman who innocently becomes the wife of that most detestable of creatures—a drunkard—but when a girl enters such a union with a full knowledge of what she is doing there can be but little sympathy for her. This one has sowed the wind. Henceforth she will reap the whirlwind.

The Louisville Times does not mince its words, but speaks right out in meeting "charging, current lingua, that Mr. J. Sel Miller, clerk of the city court, has been paid by the gamblers sums of money for which the only consideration was immunity from the pains and penalties the law prescribes for the offense of gambling. If this be libelous, the party libeled knows his remedy." Up to the hour of going to press, however, we had not heard of Mr. Miller rushing frantically around demanding an investigation. In fact the gallant Sel's silence in the matter is touchingly eloquent. He evidently knows when it is best to saw wood and say nothing, but if the courts do their duty his official rottenness will be brought to the light it deserves and his punishment fixed accordingly.

There have been numerous and sundry imitations of Jack the Ripper, Jack the Hutter and others, but Saginaw, Mich., is the first place to develop a veritable Kate the Kisser. A young woman, said to be a vision of loveliness, darts out of dark corners and kisses young men as they pass, whether they want to or not. They usually want to, though, and the population of Saginaw is being daily increased by young men who long to be encircled in the lovely arms and feel the sweet imprint of the lips of the mysterious but lovely creature.

It does not fall to the lot of many men to be honored with office of important character as long as Mrs. Senator Morrill, of Vermont. He has just celebrated his 83d birthday and is still enjoying mental and physical vigor to an unusual degree. Mr. Morrill was elected to Congress in 1855 and since then has held a seat in the Lower or Upper House continuously. If he lives to complete his present term he will have served 39 years in the highest law making body in the world, the United States Senate.

Dr. John D. Woods, member of the Legislature from Warren county, is no hog, neither does he want the earth. His experience for the last 18 months at Frankfort has cured him of further desire to be a law maker and he has decided not to stand for re-election. The doctor is deservedly popular everywhere, is held in high esteem at home and could no doubt succeed himself, but the average per diem drawer at Frankfort has enjoyed the last pull at the flesh-pots of office he will ever have.

Mr. Hoke Smith, secretary of the interior, will become as famous as Mr. Cleveland for aphorisms, if he keeps on. He made the wise remark the other day that "public offices should be created and conducted exclusively for the benefit of those who do not fill them." This is good enough to go alongside with "Public Office is a Public Trust," and the other maxims that Grover has laid down.

Mr. George A. Jones formerly city editor of the Courier-Journal, and an attaché of the Louisville press since the war, in which he fought bravely for the Union, was elected junior vice-commander of the Kentucky Department of the G. A. R. The body honored itself in honoring such a man.

Louisville voted to subscribe a million dollars in 4 per cent. bonds for the State Capital.

The great World's Fair opened yesterday with much eclat. President Cleveland and party were on hand and after a speech from him and others he touched a button and electricity and steam did the rest. The great show is now in full blast, though exhibits will be added all along. Thousands of fakirs are already an hand and suckers will be played for all they are worth. The hotels seem to have organized into a body of bilks, judging from the circulars they are sending out. When you go, as everybody will, don't forget to keep your weather eye skinned and your hand on your pocket-book. There will be smooth and taking individuals there that will be able to deceive the very elect. Forewarned is forearmed. Keep cool and under no circumstances allow yourself to get rattled.

According to the Louisville Critic, Senator Lindsey is playing fast and loose with the applicants for surveyor. He endorsed Col. Welch; Spaulding, of Marion, claims that he promised to support him and now the rumor is published that he will see that Col. J. Stoddard Johnston is appointed, if a certain man will release him. If any or all of this be true, the Senator is more of a vacillating character than we think he is and needs to stiffen his spinal column with crinoline or something of the sort.

After wrestling all day Saturday with the bill to prohibit Italians and others from taking bears along the highways of the grand old Commonwealth, and failing to pass it, the Kentucky Legislature was not too fatigued to accept an invitation to attend the Lexington races to-day in a body. When they go up and invest that $5 a day they haven't earned, it looks like a charge of obtaining money under false pretense would lie against them.

Cartoonist Kerr, of the Louisville Commercial, one of the most gifted men in the business, is making life unpleasant for Emmett Logan, of the Times, and Logan tries to get even with him by printing his name Cur. The cartoonist has gotten the massive brow and the no less massive feet of the distinguished editor down to a fine point, but the face and features are not up to Mr. Kerr's usual correctness.

What fools these mortals be, to be sure. It is silly enough for the Irish to kiss the blarney-stone, but it is the height of blooming idiocy for sensible Americans to get so enthusiastic and patriotic as to press their lips to the old Liberty Bell, as many of them did at Chicago on its arrival.

Mrs. Potter Palmer drove a golden nail into the women's building at Chicago Saturday to signalize its completion. The fact that she did so without mashing her fingers goes to show that she is a remarkable woman in more ways than for beauty and sense.

A number of his friends have suggested to Harvey Helm, Esq., that he become a candidate for the Legislature and he is thinking favorably of doing so. He is most worthy and capable and the Interior Journal will be glad to see his ambition gratified.

Mr. Cleveland jammed his head against the top of the carriage he was entering at New York, causing the blood to flow freely, but as it is pretty hard it did not hurt him much, and he is too sensible to let anything make him have the big head.

The president is a bigger attraction at Chicago than the Fair. Nearly the whole of the vast crowd drawn to the opening yesterday came to see the man of destiny. And all who saw him saw a man in every sense of the term.

Harry McCreight has retired from the Shelbyville Sentinel, having sold his interest to Wm. A. Wallwork, who will with its original owner, Mr. John P. Cozine, run it on its former high standard.

"AND the rain, it raineth every day." The April showers have been a little too promiscuous and when they linger into May, as they were doing yesterday, they begin to create a feeling that there can be even too much of a good thing. The signal service promises a let up to-day, though, the dispatch reading "Fair, colder Tuesday."

ON account of the rain Saturday the proposed race between Will Hays' mare, A. E. Hundley's roadster and Tom Yeager's Clara W. did not come off, but was postponed till next Saturday afternoon. W. THE residence of Mr. J. M. Cook, of Hustonville, caught fire Friday and for a while it looked as if it would be consumed. A defective flue was the origin. They were both on the roof the last time when the neighbors arrived to lend a helping hand.

SERVED HIM RIGHT.—The Advocate says that Al Brackett, a would-be funny man, called the foreman of the grand jury to the door and said "Loan me fifty cents, Humphrey. I want to buy a half-pint." All persons who may have claims against the said Receiver, growing out of his operation of the road, and all persons who may have claims against any employee of the Receiver which should be paid out of the wages of such employee, are notified to transmit the same by mail to Richard P. Ernst, 28 1/2 Chamber of Commerce Building, Cincinnati, Ohio.

MR. C. D. POWELL, the wide awake merchant who came here from Jackson, closed his first year's business here Saturday and says he sold $25,000 worth of goods, every dollar cash.

CRAIG MARTIN and Tom Hale were tried yesterday before Judge Varnon for misbehaving at the Neal's Creek school-house while preaching was going on. The former was acquitted and the latter was fined $10.

DEPOSED.—A dispatch from Lexington says J. H. Swango, of Centre College, the convicted plagiarist, was deposed from his throne as the king of the Kentucky orators. A meeting of the Kentucky Inter-collegiate Oratorical Association was held there Saturday and that action was decided on. Swango was requested to return the medal that was awarded him at the big oratorical contest held last month.

THE FOUNTAIN.—The committee has decided to accept the suggestion of the INTERIOR JOURNAL as to the location of the fountain on Court Square, and Wm. Moore, of the Lexington Plumbing Co., from whom it was bought, has arrived to put it up. It will stand a few feet up the walk in front of the Court House. The present steps will be removed and one on each side of the fountain will be erected, with pavements all around. The work will go rapidly ahead and before the end of the week the sparkling spray will be sent heavenward. It will not only be an ornament, but furnish a delightful place around which to sit during the hot afternoons that are fast approaching.

THE PRINCESS.—Walton's Opera House was crowded Thursday night to witness the rendition of Tennyson's charming little love story, The Princess, by the V. A. M. Society of Stanford Female College, under the capable direction of Miss Olivia W. Summers, art and elocution teacher, and it was the unanimous verdict that the young ladies acquitted themselves most gratifyingly. Miss Essie Burch sustained the role of Prince in her usually excellent manner, while Miss Laura McAnally was even a more charming little Princess than the one she portrayed. The love scene in the last act in which osculation and embraces played a leading part, showed that they are at fault in all the accomplishments. Miss Flora Ballou is a natural actress and as Lady Blanche won additional encomiums. Miss Jennie Summers was a very lovely Lady Psyche; Miss Susan Baughman as King Gama both looked and acted her part well; Miss Mary Bruce made a capital Florian; Miss Mattie Hopper was very amusing as Cyril, while Miss Glenn Bibb as Ipsi, Miss Ethyl Beazley as Melissa, Miss Nora Moreland as Violet, and the other young ladies presented their roles very acceptably. During the performance Miss Nora Moreland sang a couple of solos with such sweetness that she was applauded to the echo and made the recipient of many beautiful flowers. Just before the final tableau, Miss Jennie Summers sang "He was a Prince," in such a manner as to captivate the audience and cause her admirers to shower flowers upon her. The Stanford Gold Band furnished the music between the acts and surprised even those who had expected much, with the proficiency in which the numbers were rendered. The entertainment was a success in every particular and Miss Summers and the performers deserved the congratulations they received on all sides.

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

—A divorce was recently granted to a woman in Paris, Texas, and five minutes later she faced the judge with another man and was married.

—John Hanson Craig, known as the heaviest man in the world, and Jennie Craig, the snake charmer, museum freaks, were married at Danville, Ind.

—The wife of David Lumpkin, a wealthy insurance agent of Memphis, put $5,000 of her husband's money in her inside pocket and skipped with J. C. Horen, a proof-reader on a daily at that place.

—Coleman Waters, son of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. R. Waters, and Miss Sudie Hackney, daughter of Mr. John M. Hackney, were married at the Baptist church Thursday evening just before prayer meeting, by Rev. J. W. Lynch.

—Mrs. Lingle, of South Charleston, O., who has just died aged 80 years, did not believe in banks and kept her money around her in various places. Many boxes and cans containing gold and silver have been found and the relatives of the deceased are at present busy digging up every foot of ground on the premises in their search for money.

—A dispatch from Lancaster says that Mr. and Mrs. James Harvey Yantis celebrated the 60th anniversary of their marriage. This venerable couple are aged respectively 86 and 76. They have 12 living children and are grandparents to 36 grown men and women and are called great-grandfather and mother by 8 other children. They are the oldest couple who have membership in the Lancaster Christian church.

—The Winchester Sun says that Reuben Adams, upon whose silvery locks the snows of 72 winters have fallen and Miss Arkie Osborn, who confesses that she has seen 63 summers and as many springs, winters and falls, were married the other day. And thereby hangs a tale. Over 40 years ago he courted Miss Arkie but the course of true love did not run smooth and Reuben married another woman with whom he lived happily for many years, until the grim reaper came along and left him a disconsolate widower. In the course of time, however, this great sorrow was partially healed; but there remained in his heart a longing for some gentle, tender spirit to preside over his destiny. He bethought himself of his first love, little Arkiedee, and with fluttering heart and trembling step he sought her out. Little Arkie had remained true to her first love. The old flames were rekindled, the vows of long ago were renewed, and now the twain walk as one down through the evening of life, happy in each other's love, with the blessing of a host of friends showered around them.

A NICE LITTLE JOKE.

But the Extra Baggage Was Too Much For the Chicago Man.

"We had some fun last week," said the drummer to the hotel clerk Saturday night after he had taken his supper and his week's work was done.
"Go on," suggested the clerk encouragingly.

"It was up at a station on the Flint and Pere Marquette railroad, where there is a sawmill and a store or two and timber is plenty. There were three or four of us, one of the party a young Chicago drummer, who was as fresh as Lake Michigan. He was jolly and everybody as we were waiting for a delayed train, and at last he tackled the man who checked the baggage.

"I say," he said to him, with a wink at the rest of us, "can I get a trunk checked here for Detroit?"
"Certainly, if you've got a ticket," replied the baggage man.

"That's all right. I've got the ticket, but checking the trunk is what bothers me."
"Don't worry about that, mister," said the simple minded baggage man. "I can check any sort of trunk you've got."

"This is such a trunk as I never saw checked," explained the Chicago fresh.
"Bring on your trunk; I'll fix it," insisted the baggage man.

"I'll bet you $5 you won't do it,"
bluffed the Chicago man.
"The baggage man replied by taking out a fiver and putting it in my hands, and Chicago came up smiling and put his there too.

"Wait," he said to the baggage man, with another wink at me, "till I go back to the hotel and get it."
"Then he disappeared, and in about 10 minutes he pulled up alongside of the platform with a team of cattle dragging the trunk of a tree about 25 feet long and 2 feet in diameter at its smallest girth.

"Here you are," shouted the Chicago man, with a big laugh of triumph, "bring on your check. This is my trunk."
"I thought, and so did the rest of us, that Chicago had the countryman, and he looked it himself at first, for there was no use talking, he could never get that thing into the car, but he got his second wind in a moment.

"All right," he said, smiling at the drummer. Then to the man with the team, "Haul it over onto them hay scales, Bill, and weigh it."
"What's that for?" asked the drummer, without a wink to any of us.

"Got to see how much it weighs,"
said the baggage man quietly. "Lowin you your 150 pounds, I should say there was about 3,000 pounds extra baggage in that trunk, and it'll cost you something over $50 to get it down to Detroit. Hurry up, Bill," he called to the driver, "that train'll be along in 10 minutes."

"But Bill didn't hurry. The Chicago man paid him half a dollar for his trouble, yielded up his V to the green and guileless baggage man, and didn't have anything more to say to anybody."—Detroit Free Press.

An Oversight.
A certain popular lecturer gave evidence of great longevity on one occasion, according to an old lady in a New England town.
At the close of his last lecture in that place, as the audience was leaving the hall, a gentleman remarked that it was a funny slip of the tongue which made the lecturer say that the Pilgrim Fathers reached the bleak New England shores 170 years ago.

"Oh, well," said a little old lady, quick to furnish an excuse for her favorite lecturer, "I dare say it's one of his old lectures, and he forgot to change the date!"

The promptness and certainty of its cures have made Chamberlain's Cough Remedy famous. It is intended especially for coughs, colds, croup and whooping coughs, and is the most effective remedy known for these diseases. Mr. C. B. Main, of Union City, Pa., says: "I have a great sale on Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I warrant every bottle and have never heard of one failing to give satisfaction." 50 cent bottles for sale by W. B. McRoberts, Druggist, Stanford.

There is nothing I have ever used for muscular rheumatism that gives me as much relief as Chamberlain's Pain Balm does. I have been using it for about two years, four bottles in all, as occasion required, and always keep a bottle of it in my home. I believe I know a good thing when I get hold of it, and Pain Balm is the best I know of.
I have never met with W. B. Denny, dairyman, New Lexington, O., 50 cent bottles for sale by W. B.
McRoberts, Druggist, Stanford.

While Mr. T. J. Richey, of Altona, Mo., was traveling in Kansas he was taken violently ill with cholera morbus. He called at a drug store

Remedy so highly he concluded to try it. The result was immediate relief, and a few doses completely cured him. It is made for bowel complaint and nothing else. It never fails. For sale by W. B. McRoberts, Druggist, Stanford.

It isn't in the ordinary way that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription comes to the weak and suffering woman who needs it. It's guaranteed. Not with words merely; any medicine can make claims and promises. What is done with Favorite Prescription is this: if it fails to benefit or cure, in any case, your money is returned. Can you ask any better proof that a medicine will do what it promises?

It's an invigorating, restorative tonic, a sootheing and strengthening nerve, and a certain remedy for the ill and ailments that beset a woman.
In "female complaints" of every kind, periodical pains, internal inflammation or ulceration, bearing-down sensations, and all chronic weaknesses and irregularities, it is a positive and complete cure.
To every tired, overworked woman, and to every weak, nervous and ailing one, it is guaranteed to bring health and strength.
